The largest sale ever held in this country.

The catalogues, which will be about four inches thick, 700 pages, 4to size, containing much information valuable to Numismatists, will be ready about November 1st, and as the cost of shipping them will be very heavy, it will be necessary to make a charge for every catalogue.

Price list of what each lot sold for sent after the sale (no catalogue with it), price $2.50.
Orders must be placed at once accompanied by remittance. The edition is limited.

The variety of coins here offered is truly magnificent and there must be some item to interest every collector. If such a great sale and catalogue as this does not interest you, and your interest in Numismatics has ceased, will you have the kindness to notify me so that your name may be stricken off the mailing list.

In times past some collectors have neglected to reply to circulars sent them and their names were dropped, much to their disappointment, while in other cases they neglected to sign their name.

Trusting I may have your prompt reply and assuring you of my appreciation of your valued patronage, I remain,

Very respectfully,

333 South 16th St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.
